IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF PENNSYLVANIA

MICHAEL A. LOMBARDO, :

Plaintiff, :

v. : CIVIL ACTION NO. 24-CV-1383

OFFICER ANDREW YOST, et al.,

Defendants. :

ORDER

AND NOW, this 12th day of June, 2024, upon consideration of Plaintiff Michael A. Lombardo's pro se Amended Complaint (ECF No. 7), it is ORDERED that:

- Consistent with the Amended Complaint, the Clerk of Court is DIRECTED to TERMINATE Robert L. Nickelson and Thomas Rasich as Defendants and to ADD Stephanie Meinhart, John Doe #1 and John Doe #2 as Defendants
- 2. The Amended Complaint is DISMISSED for the reasons stated in the Court's Memorandum as follows:
- a. All claims brought pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983 and 18 U.S.C. § 241 are DISMISSED WITHOUT PREJUDICE pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915(e)(2)(B)(ii) for failure to state a claim.
- b. All state law claims are DISMISSED WITHOUT PREJUDICE for lack of subject matter jurisdiction.
- 3. Lombardo may file a second amended complaint within thirty (30) days of the date of this Order. Any second amended complaint must identify all defendants in the caption in addition to identifying them in the body of the second amended complaint and shall state the basis for Lombardo's claims against each defendant. The second amended complaint must also provide as much identifying information for the defendants as possible. Lombardo may refer to a defendant by last name only if that is the only identifying information possessed. The second amended complaint shall be a complete document that does not rely on the initial Complaint, Amended Complaint, or other papers filed in this case to state a claim. When drafting his second amended complaint, Lombardo should be mindful of the Court's reasons for dismissing the claims in his Amended Complaint as explained in the Court's Memorandum. Upon the filing of a second amended complaint, the Clerk shall not make service until so ORDERED by the Court.

- 4. The Clerk of Court is DIRECTED to send Lombardo a blank copy of the Court's form complaint for a prisoner filing a civil rights action bearing the above civil action number. Lombardo may use this form to file a second amended complaint if he chooses to do so.
- Complaint as originally pled, he may file a notice with the Court within thirty (30) days of the date of this Order stating that intent, at which time the Court will issue a final order dismissing the case. Any such notice should be titled "Notice to Stand on Amended Complaint," and shall include the civil action number for this case. See Weber v. McGrogan, 939 F.3d 232 (3d Cir. 2019) ("If the plaintiff does not desire to amend, he may file an appropriate notice with the district court asserting his intent to stand on the complaint, at which time an order to dismiss the action would be appropriate." (quoting Borelli v. City of Reading, 532 F.2d 950, 951 n.1 (3d Cir. 1976))); In re Westinghouse Sec. Litig., 90 F.3d 696, 703-04 (3d Cir. 1996) (holding "that the district court did not abuse its discretion when it dismissed with prejudice the otherwise viable claims . . . following plaintiffs' decision not to replead those claims" when the district court "expressly warned plaintiffs that failure to replead the remaining claims . . . would result in the dismissal of those claims").

6. If Lombardo fails to file any response to this Order, the Court will conclude that Lombardo intends to stand on his Amended Complaint and will issue a final order dismissing this case. See Weber, 939 F.3d at 239-40 (explaining that a plaintiff's intent to stand on his complaint may be inferred from inaction after issuance of an order directing him to take action to cure a defective complaint).

JOHN MILTON YOUNGE, J.

¹ The six-factor test announced in Poulis v. State Farm Fire & Casualty Co., 747 F.2d 863 (3d 292 F.R.D. 171, 175 (D.N.J. 2013) ("[T]he Court need not engage in an analysis of the six Poulis factors in cases where a party willfully abandons her case or otherwise makes adjudication of the matter impossible." (citing cases)).

Cir. 1984), is inapplicable to dismissal orders based on a plaintiff's intention to stand on her complaint. See Weber, 939 F.3d at 241 & n.11 (treating the "stand on the complaint" doctrine as distinct from dismissals under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 41(b) for failure to comply with a court order, which require assessment of the Poulis factors); see also Elansari v. Altria, 799 F. App'x 107, 108 n.1 (3d Cir. 2020) (per curiam). Indeed, an analysis under Poulis is not required when a plaintiff willfully abandons the case or makes adjudication impossible, as would be the case when a plaintiff opts not to amend her complaint, leaving the case without an operative pleading. See Dickens v. Danberg, 700 F. App'x 116, 118 (3d Cir. 2017) (per curiam) ("Where a plaintiff's conduct clearly indicates that he willfully intends to abandon the case, or where the plaintiff's behavior is so contumacious as to make adjudication of the case impossible, a balancing of the Poulis factors is not necessary."); Baker v. Accounts Receivables Mgmt., Inc.,
